

Ron Godwin was a loving husband, father and grandfather who also loved his community and MUST Ministries. Sometimes referred to as "the patriarch of Pinetree (Country Club)", he and his company, Op 5, were the backbone of the MUST Charity Golf tournament there. His sudden death in May was heartbreaking for all who knew him. He was a true gentleman who loved playing golf and the relationships fostered around the game.

TITLE SPONSOR

A Cause That Counts

Celebrating 50 years of serving our neighbors in need, MUST Ministries has helped record numbers of people in poverty during the pandemic. More than 150,000 people have come to MUST for food, housing, job training, healthcare and clothing in the past year... and the needs continue.

The 85% of our clients who are women and children are particularly vulnerable. Join us for a meaningful golf day as we raise funds to serve others.

A Beautiful Setting

Pinetree Country Club's 18-hole championship golf course has long been regarded as among the finest private golf courses in Georgia. Pinetree's sublime parkland beauty and challenging layout attracted four Georgia State Amateur Championships and was also selected by the Georgia PGA to host the 2015 Georgia Open.
