COOSA VALLEY CREDIT UNION ANNOUNCES RINGGOLD RELOCATION TO BATTLEFIELD PARKWAY

Rome, Georgia, December 12, 2022 — Coosa Valley Credit Union has announced that they will relocate their Ringgold branch to Battlefield Parkway, Ft. Oglethorpe, in 2023.

Coosa Valley will break ground on the new branch in December. Located next to the Wal-Mart Neighborhood Market and near Chick-fil-A, this new Ft. Oglethorpe location will allow for easy access from Battlefield Parkway and convenience for members.

The branch will feature a full-service lobby, drive-thru lanes, a 24/7 ATM, and will provide ample parking and easy traffic flow and access. Financial Service Representatives will be in-person, and onsite, to support all business and individual banking needs.

“The new site is a convenient location for the community,” said Andy F. Harris, President and CEO of Coosa Valley. “We look forward to providing members easy access to lending and banking products from our friendly and local employees at the new location.”

The current Ringgold location will remain open until the Battlefield Parkway branch construction is complete. More details will be shared regarding a ribbon cutting ceremony and grand opening for the new location once they are finalized.

With more than $500 million in assets, Coosa Valley Credit Union is among the largest credit unions in Georgia. It has more than 40,000 members and more than 100 employees. Founded in 1954 as the General Electric Employees of Rome Federal Credit Union, Coosa Valley Credit Union now provides superior financial services to families, individuals and businesses from all industries in Bartow, Catoosa, Chattooga, Cherokee, Cobb, Dade, Floyd, Gordon, Haralson, Paulding, Polk, Walker and Whitfield counties.
