

Flashcards to print are designed to print one sided. After printing, merely cut them apart and fill in the backs. The process of looking up the material and creating the back of the card is a good way to commit the material to your memory. You may wish to bring the cards to class and fill in the backs as the material is presented by the instructor. Another option would be to refer to the textbook glossary at the end of the book.

Profit

Police Power

Buffer Zone

Net Lease

Percentage Lease

Gross Lease

Ground Lease

Title Theory
Mortgage

Lien Theory
Mortgage

Acceleration

Reverse Mortgage

Blanket Loan

Package Mortgage

Primary Market

Secondary Market

Blockbusting

Steering

Redlining

Bill of Sale

Deed Exception

Censure

Bargain and Sale Deed

Executed Contract

Executory Contract

Accession

Survivorship

Special Agent

General Agent

General Lien

Specific Lien

Wraparound
Mortgage

Estate at Sufferance

PUD

Estate for Years

Usury

Alienation

Perc Test

Puffing

Deed in Lieu

Stigmatized